Responding to the Word

Prayers of Thanksgiving & Intercession

God of presence, you walk alongside those who are learning how-to-be.

We pray for all who feel unseen or unnamed—for those struggling with identity, with illness, with loss, with fear of no longer belonging.

Give them courage to be.

We pray for those standing at thresholds—new beginnings, painful endings, uncertain futures.

Give them courage to take the next step.

We pray for leaders and communities, for churches and institutions, that they may be places of invitation rather than exclusion, listening rather than controlling.

Give us courage to become what love requires.

We pray for ourselves, when anxiety threatens to define us, when doubt feels louder than hope. Remind us that even our questions can be holy ground.

We place all these prayers into your patient, listening heart.
Amen.
